

What Cameroons want to happen and think will happen	What Cameroons don't want / don't think will happen
Economy grows, business hires pub. sector castoffs, tax cuts 2014, non-EU dereguln., no u-turn ('EM opposed clean up')	Economy flat / shrinks, unemployment rises, negative equity, taxes rise, dereguln doesn't happen, u-turn
Cuts seen as fair (maybe a new supertax?), strikes = manageable	Cuts seen as unfair, strikes win public support and disrupt economy
Welfare reform improves incentives to work and delivers cuts	Cuts don't appear, incentives don't change much
Immigration cap reduces problems and hostility	Govt can't limit immigration other than best educated, BNP and UKIP profit from mix of immigration / crime / EU
Cuts and reform improve policing and reduce reoffending	Violent crime gets worse, cuts / sentencing / prison closures blamed
Academies expansion, behaviour improves, dumbing down reversed	Free schools strangled, Acad. converters stall, behaviour and standards unchanged
Lib Dems lose AV but bought off OK (PR for elected Lords?)	No AV, Lib Dems demand concessions that threaten to tear Coalition
No terrorism, 'civil liberties restored'	Terrorism hits, Coalition split over clampdown v civil liberties
EU / ECHR remain irrelevant	EU / ECHR put huge pressure on Coalition (UKIP majority in EU Parl elections)
World quiet, AFG retreat w/o embarrassment, replace Fox and MOD gripped, pretence of UK still at top table	Significant conflicts, AFG fiasco, PAK terrorism, ME proliferation, Fox blows, MOD stays awful, UK clearly slipping
Inner circle management = sufficient; comms = good; mrkt research continues to prove unnecessary	Inner circle's management, lack of mrkt research and comms > disaster; Civ. Serv. block reforms
Lib Dems can't leave Coalition because polls awful; Tories' power lust means Party keeps quiet	Lib Dems fracture / implode; grassroots abandon leadership like in 90s
Olympics a success	Olympics another example of UK unable to run a major project
City remains major financial centre, last 5 years seen as minor setback	Clear that City is in medium-term decline viz Frankfurt and other global hubs
Calm global currency and bond markets, gradual fix to global imbalances	Currency wars, bond market chaos, attempted 'Plaza 2'
Health reforms succeed, NHS disappears as major negative for Tory brand	Health reforms a failure or have to be dropped
Anti-politics dies away	Continued scandals, anti-politics continues, UKIP and BNP benefit
